Mountain State Fugitive Task Force Conducts Drug Roundup

[MORGANTOWN, WV] – Beginning in the early morning hours U.S. Marshals and drug task force agents from the Mon Valley Drug Task Force rounded up eight subjects wanted for various drug violations throughout Monongalia County.

At the request of the Mon Valley Drug Task Force commander, U.S. Marshals from the Clarksburg office activated members of its Mountain State Fugitive Task Force to assist in the arrests. Throughout the day, Deputy Marshals, Monongalia County Sheriffs Deputies and Morgantown City Police Officers as well as task force agents with the Mon Valley Drug Task Force executed warrants within the county.

Those arrested were; Tim Kyle, Brian King, Tommy Wilson, Paul Bodah, Cheryl Hall, Gene Barnes, Victor Botley and Jessica White, all of Morgantown, WV. The arrests were without incident and approximately 150.00 of marijuana was seized.

The drug investigations which resulted in the arrest warrants were conducted by the Mon Valley Drug Task Force which is comprised of officers from the Monongalia County Sheriffs Office and the Morgantown City Police Department.

For further comment regarding the drug investigations we would invite the media to contact Chief Phil Scott of Morgantown PD or Sheriff Al Kisner.
